Dear Joey,
How is your winter vacation? I'm having a great time with my family in Germany. We arrived here on December 20th. We've visited many towns and cities and seen lots of beautiful places. My favorite place was the Sans-Souci Palace.* It was built more than 260 years ago. I took a lot of pictures. I'll be able to show them to you when I get home. I get home on Friday, December 28th. Can you come over to my house on December 29th?
Bye,
Jeff

Hi Jeff,
Germany sounds like fun. I'm having a good time, too. I borrowed some DVDs to watch. They're old science-fiction movies. I borrowed them from one of my brother's friends. They're great! I'm sorry, but I can't go to your house on the 29th. My cousin is getting married on that day, and Mom said I have to go to the wedding. But I can come over on the next day. Can I come over in the morning? I'll bring some DVDs, and we can watch them together. By the way, you'll be in Germany on Christmas Day, won't you? Where will you spend Christmas?
See you,
Joey

Matthew Flinders

Matthew Flinders was a sea captain. He traveled to Australia and made many important maps of the Australian continent.*

Flinders was born in England in 1774. When he was a boy, he read an adventure story called Robinson Crusoe. He loved the book and decided to become a sailor.* He joined the navy* when he was 15, and in 1795, he sailed to Australia. He spent five years there and drew many useful maps.

Flinders returned to England in 1800. In 1801, he got married. That year, the navy asked Flinders to make a second trip to Australia to draw more maps. He couldn't take his wife with him, so he was very sad. On this trip, Flinders became the first person to sail all the way around Australia.
