From: Nancy Hill
To: Junko Kobayashi
Date: May 12
Subject: Driving lessons

Hi Junko,
How are you? My summer vacation will start in three weeks. Last week, I took a driving class after school at my high school, and I'm going to take the driving test in the second week of June. If I pass the test, I can drive us around when you come in August. I want to take a trip to my grandmother's house when you're here. We can drive there.
I can't wait to see you!
Nancy

From: Junko Kobayashi
To: Nancy Hill
Date: May 13
Subject: Really?

Hi Nancy,
Thanks for your e-mail. My summer vacation doesn't start until the end of July. You're only 16, so I'm surprised that you can get a driver's license. In Japan, we have to be 18 years old. I'm planning to go to a driving school when I start university. Getting a driver's license is very expensive in Japan. How much does it cost in the United States? I think you'll be a good driver. Anyway, I would love to meet your grandmother.
Your friend,
Junko

From: Nancy Hill
To: Junko Kobayashi

Subject: This summer

Hi Junko,
Wow, you can't get a driver's license until you're 18! Most people in the United States can get their driver's license when they're 16. I think it's also cheaper here. The class at my school was free. When I take the driving test, I only have to pay $40. On weekends, I drive near my house with my mom or dad. It's good practice. I can't drive by myself yet, so one of my parents has to be in the car with me.
Write again soon!
Nancy

(23) When will Junko visit Nancy?

(24) What is Junko planning to do when she starts university?

- 1 Learn how to drive.
 - 2 Take a driving test in the United States.
 - 3 Take a special class at Nancy's school.
 - 4 Drive to her grandmother's house.

(25) How does Nancy practice driving on weekends?

- 1 She drives by herself.
- 2 She pays her teacher $40 for a lesson.
- 3 She drives with one of her parents.
- 4 She drives to her friend's house.

Valentinus

Many people around the world celebrate Valentine's Day. In some countries, people give chocolate or other gifts to friends and family. They do this to show their love for those people. However, the history of Valentine's Day is actually very sad. The name Valentine's Day comes from the name of a Roman priest* called Valentinus. He was born in the year 226.

In those days, Rome had a very large and strong army.* Many of the soldiers* in the army wanted to get married and have families. However, the leader of Rome, Claudius II, thought soldiers should not be married, so he made it a rule. After that, they could not get married anymore. Some soldiers broke the rule and got married, but they could not tell anyone.

Many priests were afraid of Claudius II, so they did not help soldiers to get married. However, Valentinus thought that men and women should get married and have families. So he helped soldiers when they wanted to get married. One day, when people found out Valentinus was doing this, he got in trouble and was put in jail.*

When Valentinus was in jail, he met a young girl who worked there. Every day, she brought food to Valentinus and talked with him, and they became good friends. But Claudius II decided to kill Valentinus. On the night before he died, Valentinus wrote a letter to the girl. He signed the letter, "Your Valentine." The next day, February 14, Valentinus was killed. However, today, many people celebrate love on this day.

*priest: 神父 (しんぶ)

*army: 軍隊 (ぐんたい)
